

- Data security
- Third parties sharing for marketing purposes
- Right to erase
- Third-party sharing in case of company acquisition and merging
- First party collection Opt-in, opt-out messages and notifications to end user
- Special audience: California residents
- First party collection: personal and account information
- First party collection: browser and device information
- First-party collection: device and service specific information
- Other
- Special audience: children
- Contact information: company
- First-party collection: right to edit, access, with specified (legal) basis of data processing
- Privacy policy changes

